Church Group Names Chairman

NEW BREMEN, N.Y. (AP) — Lewis County Democrats are hoping they have more luck in November's election than they had at their annual picnic Sunday.

Nearly 200 of the party faithful and an invited guest held tickets for a door prize.

The guest had the winning number. He was Charles Shaver — Lewis County Republican chairman.

It probably won't be your fault

Art classes have been conducted at the First Presbyterian Church this summer under the auspices of the Hope Junior Auxiliary. The various media used by the 9-12 age group included tempera, collage, and clay. The teenage group had drawing and painting from still life, ink and charcoal. The adult media included sketching, oil, and still life.

Pictured above conducting one of the classes is the instructor, Whit Connah, who came to Hope once a week from the Arkansas Arts Center. Seated around the tables, left to right, clockwise, are: Paula Dillard, Melanie Garrett, Becky Garrett, Donna Kay Koen, Billy Tolleson, Steve Routon, Jack Turner, Tommy Tolleson.

Chrysler Is Emphasizing Auto Safety

By CHARLES C. CAIN
AP Business News Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Chrysler President Lynn A. Townsend laid heavy emphasis on the safety issue today as he became the first auto executive to unveil his 1967 line of cars.

Townsend, taking note of the pressure which automakers have been under to make cars safer, told 300 newsmen at Chrysler's national news preview that the firm had gone all out in the safety field.

Townsend's pinpointing of safety items overshadowed his report that Chrysler spent a record-breaking $370 million in planning, tooling and other costs to bring the new car line to market. A year ago, the figure was $300 million.

He predicted new car sales in the United States this year would wind up about 200,000 behind 1965 sales record of 9.3 million, including imports.

He said that while U.S. sales for the first seven months of this year ran four per cent below a year ago, Chrysler sales were two per cent ahead of a year ago.

Reflecting the spotlight which congressional committees and auto industry critics such as author Ralph Nader had turned on the industry's safety record, Townsend said Chrysler's new cars would continue to be "the safest we can build."

"One of the most important safety features on our 1967 line is an energy-absorbing steering column which will be standard equipment on every car we build," he said. "It will telescope at a controlled rate in the event of a head-on collision and reduce the likelihood of the steering column being driven rearward toward the driver."

"Another important safety feature in our 1967 line is a dual braking system which will be standard equipment on every car we build," he added.

Townsend said Chrysler cars ranging from the Valiant to the Imperial had undergone numerous style and engineering changes for 1967.

The trend was toward larger cars with more engine and accessory options.

Housing to Get Stopgap Shot in Arm

An AP News Analysis
By JOSEPH R. COYNE
WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government is about to give the lagging housing industry a multibillion-dollar shot in the arm. But the injection could well have a very painful aftereffect — still higher interest rates.

The size of the injection is not known — $4.76 billion — but even its backers say it's only a stopgap and a rescue operation, not a cure for the basic problem.

"It will alleviate a very, very serious situation in the home-building industry but it's not the complete answer," one government source said.

He referred to legislation to channel the $4.76 billion into the industry through the Federal National Mortgage Association. The association, known as Fannie Mae, buys mortgages from private lenders who, in turn, use the funds supplied by the agency for new home loans.

The House completed congressional action on the legislation last Friday and President Johnson is expected to sign it promptly.

Mortgage bankers cautioned against exaggerating its effects. One economist estimated it would boost private housing starts by about 100,000 units, far less than the drop so far this year.

The $4.76-billion injection represents only a small part of the total mortgage market. Mortgage debt last year increased about $31 billion, including about $16 billion on one-to-four family houses.

Fannie Mae will have to borrow $3.76 billion of the total in the already tight money market where funds are relatively scarce and interest rates are at record of near-record levels.

Vigilantes Doing Cuba's Housekeeping

By ISAAC M. FLORES
HAVANA (AP) — Cuba's once-feared neighborhood vigilante committees are active now in propaganda, public health, education and rent collection campaigns.

The Committees for the Defense of the Revolution, said to comprise about one-fourth of Cuba's more than 7 1/2 million people, has taken on many of the revolution's "housekeeping" jobs.

During the Fidel Castro regime's incubation period, they were responsible for sending many of their neighbors to death before firing squads by fingering them.

With a committee in virtually every block in every community, they still keep track of every resident, do guard duty night and day, and keep an eye on any activity, unusual movement, or visitor.

But over the years they've increasingly assumed the more prosaic duties of distributing ration books, conducting evening classes for the illiterate, training out people for inoculation campaigns, goading citizens into paying their rent, supervising "volunteer" farm work on Sundays and generally carrying the revolution's propaganda message.

The organization was founded by Prime Minister Castro as "a system of collective vigilance to keep the country safe from its

Fears Viet Nam War May Cover World

By DAVID MASON
PHNOM PENH, Cambodia
President Charles de Gaulle declared on his arrival in Cambodia today that "the war in Viet Nam could lead the world to its misfortune."

The French leader wasted no time in commenting on the conflict being waged on the border of this Southeast Asian kingdom after his plane touched down on a flight from Djibouti, French Somaliland.

Shortly before his arrival, Prince Norodom Sihanouk charged that 250 men had been trained in neighboring Thailand to cause disorder during the French leader's visit.

The Cambodian chief of state told a news conference energetic counter measures had been taken and exceptional security precautions would be applied during De Gaulle's visit Thursday to the temple of Angkor Wat, in northwest Cambodia.

Cambodia and Thailand are ancient enemies. One of the chief issues between them has been the temples at Angkor and the surrounding province of Siem Reap, which was Thai territory until 1907 and again in 1941-46.

Prince Sihanouk said the plot had been discovered by Cambodian agents who infiltrated the anti-Sihanouk Khmer Serei (Free Cambodia) movement in Thailand. He said that a group of 50 plotters planned to mingle with the crowd at Siem Reap when De Gaulle arrived to visit Angkor.

Sabotage attempts also were scheduled in the frontier area near Thailand, he said.

Phnom Penh was spic and span and dressed in brilliant colors as its 500,000 inhabitants expectantly awaited De Gaulle's arrival late this afternoon.

De Gaulle, on a 27,000-mile, 19-day swing around the world, was flying to this former French possession from Djibouti, French Somaliland, France's last foothold in Africa.

During his three-day state visit, the French president was not expected to make any dramatic moves toward ending the war in Viet Nam. But he was expected to stress his view that Viet Nam — along with Cambodia and Laos — should be independent and neutral with no foreign troops on its soil.

attacks."

Now the committees are instrumental, by their very presence, in keeping down any type of organized resistance to the regime.

They direct citywide cleanup and beautifying campaigns and construction of children's playgrounds. They take charge of blood donation drives, enroll children in school and drum up interest in Communist rallies — all the while busily recruiting new members.

The committees have been active in clamping down on flourishing black-market activity.

Members know each resident of each house or building in their province and are aware of each person's business, his comings and goings, his attitudes, habits, general opinions and revolutionary zeal, or lack of it.

In the words of their leaders, "We want to take part in every activity in every part of our country, all the time."

Reserve Bill Called a Pale Substitute

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Richard B. Russell said today a House committee's plan to authorize President Johnson to call up about 190,000 Reservists appears to be "a pale substitute for what is needed."

Russell's chilly reception greeted House Armed Services Committee approval of a bill which would authorize the President to place on active duty some 56,000 nondrilling Reservists and about 133,000 other Reservists who have not completed training.

The President has not asked for such authority and many members of Congress have expressed doubt he would ever use it.

Russell, D-Cal., who heads the Senate Armed Services Committee, told a newsmen he is going to await developments.

"There is a question in my mind whether this House bill goes far enough," he said. "From press accounts of its terms — and I have had no opportunity to study the bill itself — it looks like a pale substitute for what is needed."

The Senate adopted 66 to 21 last week a Russell amendment to allow the President to require 18 months service from all Reservists or Guardsmen with less than six months active duty — an estimated 500,000 men.

But the House rejected the Russell amendment, tacked onto the $58-billion defense money bill, largely on grounds its Armed Services Committee was working on a separate measure.

When the House committee approved its bill by a 31-1 vote Monday, Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., called it a refinement of the language of the Russell proposal.

Drunk Berliner Killed by Reds

BERLIN (AP) — East German border guards shot and killed today a drunken West Berlin man swimming in a midcity canal that runs along the East-West border, police reported.

The man swam over to the East Berlin bank, police said, and was riddled with bullets as he tried to return to the West side.

The man was shot in the face and back and died in a hospital, about an hour after the incident, police said.

Truman Has Raised a Touchy Issue

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman has raised a question plaguing both the government monetary authorities and the stock market: Will rising interest rates halt inflation or will they bring on a sharp deflation or even depression?

So far, tight money has provided more questions than answers. The few facts to date are:

1. Prices have continued to climb even as interest rates soared to a 40-year high, and the pace of the price increases has increased;
2. Demand for business and consumer loans and plans for business expansion continue high despite the rising cost of borrowing;
3. Credit shortages have sent the home building industry into a tailspin and raised the cost to the consumer of many other purchases;
4. The bears have had a field day in the stock market, partly because of the fear of deflation of the boom, and partly because high interest rates have sent investors looking elsewhere for bigger returns on their money.

Humphrey, Bride on Honeymoon

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Robert Humphrey and his bride of two days were honeymooning today at an undisclosed spot.

Before leaving late Saturday, the 22-year-old son of Vice President and Mrs. Hubert Humphrey displayed some of his father's finesse with newsmen.

"Which way will you be going on your honeymoon — north, south, east or west?" young Humphrey was asked.

"Yes, it will be one of those directions," smiled the bridegroom.

Robert and Donna Erickson, radiant 21-year-old blonde, were married here Saturday at St. Olaf's Catholic Church, sealing a friendship that grew out of their days at Mankato State College.

Hundreds of guests attended a reception at the Humphrey home about 40 miles west of here at Waverly, including Mrs. Patrick Nugent, the younger daughter of President Johnson.

But so far there has been only a moderation in the rate of the economy's upswing. The growth still continues, with the third quarter of 1966 already considered to have seen a faster growth than the second, although not as big a one as in the first three months of the year.

Bankers say they are still under great pressure for loans to business. And corporations have turned to other ways of raising money than bank loans — such as issuing their own IOUs.

Consumer demand for credit seems unabated, and consumer spending continues high as the total of personal income rises.

Group Wants Johnson to Shun Legion

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Veterans Committee called on President Johnson today to cancel his plan to address the American Legion's national convention, on the ground that the Legion "still overwhelmingly is a segregated organization."

The White House had announced Monday that Johnson would address the legionnaires today in the District of Columbia Armory.

The AVC, with a membership of some 10,000, lodged its protest in a telegram to Johnson contending that the makeup of Monday's legion parade demonstrated the segregation policy.

Similar messages were sent to Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Veterans Administrator William J. Driver. The telegram to Driver also asked for an investigation under the Civil Rights Act "concerning federal assistance given to the American Legion and to other veterans organizations whose lack of clear national policy on integration condones or encourages large-scale de facto segregation."

The messages were signed by Ben Neufeld, national vice chairman of the AVC, and Frank E. G. Weil, chairman of the District of Columbia chapter.

Weil said he sat through the entire seven-hour parade and kept a tally of the makeup of marching units.

Of 268 groups observed in the parade, the message to Johnson said, 177 appeared to be all white, 26 appeared to contain "token" Negro participation, four appeared to be composed wholly of "other" groups, 19 appeared to be all Negro, and only 42 were integrated.

Johnson's plans for the speech were announced as the Legion gave evidence of readiness to back a firm policy in Viet Nam.

Tight Money Blamed on Interest Hike

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — If you're in the market for a new car, it may cost you a bit more. But if you're looking for someone to finance your purchase of a new home, it may be a bit easier this fall.

In both cases the key is tight money — rising interest rates in one segment of auto financing, but government largesse for the tightly squeezed mortgage market.

Tight money also is blamed this week for diverting still more investors from the stock market. And the rising interest rates are being felt by businessmen having more trouble to get a bank loan to finance their fall business inventories — and paying more for the loan when they land it.

The auto industry will be caught up in the credit squeeze next week as some finance companies and banks hike the interest charges on loans to car dealers for carrying inventories of new cars.

The costlier loans won't add much to what dealers already pay for such financing, but many are expected to pass along the added amount to their customers in higher prices on the new models.

The dealers now pay 6 per cent for most such loans. Next week some finance companies will charge 6 1/2 per cent and some banks 6 3/4 per cent. These loans allow the dealer to carry the new car until he can sell it. The length of time he has the unsold car in stock determines how much this charge adds to his cost of doing business — and to the price the customer will pay.

With the finance companies, the added interest charge is blamed on tight money. They have to pay investors more for funds to lend to the dealers, so they are going to charge dealers more.

But some suspect the banks have a different reason for raising the charge even higher than did the finance companies. The banks can usually get more than 6 1/2 per cent these days for other types of loans to business. Some contend the banks are really interested in discouraging new mortgages.

More Guards for Institute

CRANSTON, R.I. (AP) — The Rhode Island Adult Correctional Institution is hiring additional guards.

Warden Harold V. Langlois said 14 guard vacancies have existed for some time but increased applications have been stimulated by an $800 pay raise under which beginning guards receive nearly $4,800 yearly.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Denise Blair, 19-year-old beauty from Layton, Utah, wears the crown of Miss U.S.A.-World, but she wasn't the only winner in Saturday's night's pageant.

Comedian Bob Hope was named "Man of the Century" by pageant officials. Hope was one of the original sponsors of the contest and for the past several years has taken the reigning Miss U.S.A.-World with him on his annual Christmas tour of U.S. military installations.

This year will be no different for hazel-eyed Miss Blair, a 36-23-36 secretary and fashion merchandizing student whose hobbies are skiing and dancing.

The next stop will be the Miss World contest in London.

Thankful for 'a Miracle'

WATERLIET, N.Y. (AP) — The John R. Smiths of Maryland went to church Sunday to "thank God for a miracle" — the finding of their daughter, Debra, 7, alive and well after nearly 48 hours alone in dense woods of the Catskill Mountains.

Slender, pony-tailed Debra set out to follow a chipmunk and vanished Thursday afternoon after a picnic with her family at a Game Farm near Cairo.

She was found about 3:30 p.m. Saturday by two 18-year-old volunteer searchers near a ledge atop 3,000-foot-high North Mountain, five miles from the game farm.

"I'm all right, daddy," she assured Staff Sgt. John R. Smith of Andrews Air Force Base, Md. "What's going on?"

Except for a cold and a few scratches, Debra was in fine shape.

FATHER SAYS DRIVE-INS ARE "OUT"

Dear Helen: My father gets so upset when I suggest going to a drive-in movie with a boy that he about has fits. I'm 16, and know how to handle men. Besides, I won't go with a guy I don't know for sure won't get fresh.

You just say the word "drive-in" to my Dad and he starts pounding the table, and going on about "passion pits." I try to tell him they're not that way any more because attendants come around with flashlights and check the cars every so often. They're just places where the kids meet. If they're out of line, their parents are called, and that does it!

My mother agrees that if your parents know and trust the guy a drive-in is as safe as any other date. And not as expensive as most.

Dear Daughter: I'll give the nod to your mother, but concede your Dad has points on his side too: he remembers those unsupervised drive-ins, back when they were first labeled "passion pits." (I'll bet you've heard this manly retort THEM!)

Perhaps you and your mother can prove that a girl worthy of his trust chooses dates who won't make her break that trust, even at a drive-in. First step: Don't argue. Just bring the boy home and let your father see he's not all that evil. — H.

Miss Arkansas Leaves for U.S. Contest

By ED SHEARER

Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP)— Mary Luella Craig, one of the youngest ever to hold the Miss Arkansas title, hopes to become the state's third finalist in four years in the Miss America Pageant, but says she has been told not to worry about it.

The 18-year-old brown-eyed beauty was scheduled to leave here today for New York and eventually on to Atlantic City, N.J., for next week's colorful pageant that will present this nation with its top beauty queen for 1967.

Donna Axum of El Dorado used the Miss Arkansas title as a stepping stone to Miss America three years ago and one year later Karen Carlson was first runner-up to Miss America.

"I've thought about that a lot," Miss Craig said Monday night, "but everyone in Arkansas connected with the pageant told me not to worry about it." "They want me to make a good showing, to be one of the 10 finalists, but don't want me to feel any pressure over it," she said. "I feel, they want me to win."

Miss Craig, daughter of a dentist, is 5 feet 6 and weighs 117 pounds. Her measurements are 35-24-36.

She said the judges at the Miss Arkansas Pageant have already given her a list of dos and don'ts while at Atlantic City, but the don'ts are "not really too demanding."

Miss Craig, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert A. Crain of Batesville, said she is excited about her first trip to New York, but says she had no scheduled appearance for the few days she will be there. "I'll be arriving in Atlantic City early, on Sept. 3," she said. The Miss America Pageant begins on Sept. 7 with the crowning of the winner scheduled for Saturday night, Sept. 10.

"I'm really looking forward to meeting all the girls, especially Miss Hawaii," she said. "I got a birthday card from her last week and I can't wait to see how she found out it was my birthday."

Miss Craig was 18 last Friday.

No Longer Is Print Required

NEW YORK (AP) — Frank Sinatra can sing in a New York cabaret again, if he wishes, without giving the city his fingerprints.

Licenses Commissioner Joel J. Tayler said Sunday he will end the requirement that cabaret employees be fingerprinted — a regulation to which Sinatra refused to submit.

The City Council must approve Tayler's proposal. Cabaret employees, including entertainers, bartenders, waitresses, waiters and owners, still must have a license.

Many U.S. Areas Short of Teachers

By HAL COOPER

NEW YORK (AP) — With school opening only days away in most parts of the United States, administrators were still desperately seeking to hire thousands of teachers today.

A nationwide shortage of qualified instructors was disclosed by an Associated Press survey. The shortage was the worst in history in some states, including Wisconsin, Missouri, North Carolina, Illinois and New York.

Among other states with disturbing numbers of vacancies were Michigan, California, Pennsylvania, Georgia, Montana, Kentucky, Maine, Rhode Island, Maryland, Minnesota, Nebraska and Oklahoma.

"I just don't know how some districts are going to open school," said Miss May Regan, teacher placement officer for the Vermont Education Department.

Teachers of science, mathematics and languages seemed to be in short supply everywhere. In many areas, the critical pinch was in the elementary schools, particularly the lower grades.

Mainly blamed for the shortages were:

- Rising enrollments.
- The drafting of teachers or recently graduated teacher-trainees into the Armed Forces.
- Widespread recruitment for federal "Head Start" and other training programs.
- Competition from industries for college graduates.

States with low teaching salary levels reported personnel losses to nearby states which pay more. In some states, better-paying big city school systems were said to be raiding smaller communities.

A spokesman for the public school system of Omaha, Neb., summed it up this way: "For teachers, it's a sellers' market."

Illinois, which has about 120,000 teachers, was trying to fill 21,000 vacancies. The office of state school Supt. Ray Page said the need was most critical in languages, vocational guidance, science, mathematics and the elementary grades.

The New York State Education Department reported that systems under its jurisdiction were short 15,000 certified teachers, about 10 per cent of the total needed. The department said most openings would have to be filled by instructors whose training does not meet minimum requirements.

New York State shortages were worst in junior and senior high school general science, 22 per cent; English, 15 per cent; and mathematics, 13 per cent.

The Michigan Department of Public Instruction said an average of 40 school districts a day were asking permission to use partly trained teachers.

Robert Cornwell, the department's teacher certification technician, said, "The only area that appears to be adequately filled is that of social sciences."

Hospital Fees Are Going Up

CHICAGO (AP)—The costs of medicare and pending federal minimum-wage legislation may cause the nation's hospitals to raise fees 20 to 25 per cent within a year, the president of the American Hospital Association said today.

Dr. Phillip D. Bonnet, the AHA's outgoing president, made the remarks in a speech prepared for delivery at the association's 68th national convention.

He noted that a minimum wage law would affect hospitals for the first time.

Jim Bunning Again Called Giant Killer

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Bunning played Jack and the Beanstalk against the Giants again, Mike Cuellar turned in a first against the Pirates, and Bob Shaw got a one-day jump on the Dodgers.

So, nothing's changed as far as the top three teams in the National League are concerned. Bunning killed the Giants for the 10th time in 12 decisions against them as Philadelphia beat San Francisco 5-1 Monday night.

Cuellar notched his first major league shutout, blanking the heavy-hitting Pirates 2-0 at Pittsburgh.

Shaw, who had lost twice to Los Angeles this season, both times to Sandy Koufax, turned the tables on the Dodgers by pitching the New York Mets to a 5-3 victory. Koufax is scheduled to pitch tonight against the Mets.

San Francisco and Pittsburgh remained in a first-place tie, with Los Angeles a game back. In other NL action Monday night, Cincinnati downed St. Louis 2-0 and the Chicago Cubs outlasted Atlanta 4-2 in 14 innings.

In the American League, Detroit took Baltimore 6-3, the New York Yankees whipped Kansas City 7-2, Minnesota trounced Washington 6-1, the Chicago White Sox edged Cleveland 2-0 and Boston nipped California 4-3.

Glants Manager Herman Franks had little trouble in explaining Bunning's mastery over his club.

"Because he's a good pitcher, that's why," Frank fumed. "Why the hell do you think? He's good."

Bunning allowed two hits in the first inning, one of them Willie Mays' run-scoring double, and then didn't allow another until the ninth when the Giants got two harmless singles.

The Phillies gave Bunning all the help he needed by scoring four runs in the third—two of them on Johnny Callison's double.

Cuellar struck out 11 and allowed just five hits in outdueling Pirate southpaw ace Bob Veale for Houston's sixth straight victory.

Houston rookie Ron Davis said many inside pitches he thought were balls were being called strikes so "I thought I'd better start swinging at them."

He did with two out in the fifth and tripled home Dave Nicholson, who had walked, and Bob Lillis, who had reached base on an error.

Shaw was staked to a 4-0 lead in the first two innings—two in the first on Jim Hickman's error and two in the second as a result of third baseman Nate Oliver's throwing error.

The Dodgers scored once in the fourth and added a pair on Lou Johnson's homer in the seventh. The Mets, breaking a five-game losing streak, added an insurance run in the seventh.

Orioles Lose 7 of Last 10 Games

Coon Hunters Plan Big "Howl In"

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles, of late, are somewhat akin to babies and inebrates. No matter how often they fail, they don't seem to get hurt.

The Orioles keep losing, but somehow continue stumbling right along toward their first American League pennant.

After games of Aug. 18, the Orioles were ahead of the pack with a 13½-game lead. Since then, they've dropped seven of 10 decisions, but have only two games slipped off their comfortable margin.

The runner-up Detroit Tigers downed the Orioles 6-3 Monday night, and the way pitcher Denny McLain struggled for his 16th victory only accentuated the apparently hopeless task confronting the Tigers.

McLain probably earned baseball's equivalent of the Congressional Medal of Honor with a tireless performance.

The Detroit right-hander threw 229 pitches, walking nine and striking out 11. The Orioles had base runners in every inning but left 13 stranded.

"Denny said he wanted to finish the game," Manager Frank Saft said. "I told him if he had that much guts, to go ahead. But he wouldn't have pitched to the winning run."

In other words, McLain was within one more base runner of being replaced in the ninth inning when Brooks Robinson singled for Baltimore's eighth hit and Curt Blefary walked with two outs. But McLain retired Woodie Held to end the three-hour game.

Willie Horton, hitless in his previous 17 trips, socked two homers and a single to drive in five Detroit runs. The homers came off loser Dave McNally, who has been touched for five of Horton's 21 homers.

The Orioles also continued their homer streak against McLain when Frank Robinson hit his 41st roundtripper in the opening inning with a man on base. That was the 11th homer Baltimore socked off McLain in 25 innings this season.

Elsewhere in the American League, Chicago shut out Cleveland 2-0, New York beat Kansas City 7-2, Minnesota dumped Washington 6-1 and Baltimore took California 4-3.

In the National League, New York downed Los Angeles 5-3, Philadelphia beat San Francisco 5-1, Houston blanked Pittsburgh 2-0, Cincinnati stopped St. Louis 2-0 and Chicago took Atlanta 4-2 in 14 innings.

Denny McLain picked up his 16th victory for the Tigers and he did it the hard way. In all, he threw 229 pitches, walked nine, struck out 11 and had to contend with baserunners in every inning.

Tommy John threw a five-hitter at Cleveland and Tommie Agee drove in both of Chicago's runs with a homer in the sixth inning. It was John's fifth shutout of the season and made his record 13-8.

Dooley Womack and Steve Hamilton gave the Yankees 6-1, 3 innings of spotless relief pitching and they erupted for six runs in the last two innings. Lou Clinton hit a two-run homer. Hamilton retired the Athletics in order in the last two innings.

Bernie Allen celebrated his first appearance in the Minnesota starting line-up in two weeks by hitting a three-run homer that broke a tie in the fourth inning. Jim Perry set the Senators down on five hits.

Jose Tartabull's pinch-hit single in the ninth snatched victory away from California after the Angels had moved ahead in the seventh on Bobby Knoop's 16th homer. George Scott hit his 25th homer. Jose Santiago went the first eight innings for the Sox and gave up just four hits.

Australians Retain the Doubles Crown

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) — Davis Cup veterans Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle headed for the U. S. Singles Tennis Tournament determined to upset the seedings today after returning the National Doubles Championship to Australia for the 11th time in 21 years.

Emerson, 29, and Stolle, 27, retained the U. S. doubles crown and joined America's Davis Cup and hopes by overwhelming Dennis Ralston, the nation's top-ranked player, and Clark Graebner 6-4, 6-4, 6-4 at Longwood.

Emerson had little complaint about his No. 2 ranking behind Wimbledon champion Manuel Santana of Spain for the National Singles opening Thursday at Forest Hills, N.Y.

Stolle, however, was peeved that he was not seeded in the singles — although he smiled and tried to act nonchalant about the matter.

"After talking with some of the American players, it seems that the seeding committee should be in a Noah's Ark or something," Stolle said. "This is the first time I haven't been seeded in five years."

Ralston and Graebner were at a physical and mental disadvantage as they were required to play nearly 45 minutes at midday to complete a 6-3, 3-6, 6-3, 15-13, 11-9 victory over Aussies Tony Roche and John Newcombe. The semifinal had been called with the score 2-2 in the fifth set because of darkness Sunday night.

"It probably was unfortunate we had to play again after the semifinal," the 24-year-old Ralston said. "We were all keyed up for continuation of the first match. However, we were fortunate to get into the finals as we could have lost the other match just as easily."

Record May Hold for Many Years

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DUQUOIN, Ill. (AP) — In a race that shapes up as unpredictable as Wednesday's 41st Hambletonian, the only sure thing seems to be that a mile record heat is beyond approach.

It used to be that the time barrier for 3-year-old trotters was a two-minute mile. But that has been shattered on the lightning-fast clay-topped mile oval at the Duquoin Fairgrounds. The record finally was ground down to an amazing 1:56 4-5 set by Ayres in 1964.

This may hold for years to come. The speed angle of Wednesday's $122,540 race, which has drawn a field of 10 shoes to keep him on stride and colts and two fillies, reverts to the once magical two minutes.

"I look for the fastest heat to be between 1:59 and 2:00," says veteran Delvin Miller, whose wife, Mary Lib, is one of the owners of favored Carlisle. "I think it will take three heats, and maybe the limit of four, to decide the winner. That's because there are four ty solid contenders — the most for this season, including the first Hambletonian in at least 60 years of trotting's triple crown, years, I may be decided on the Yonkers Futurity.

The electric brain named Carlisle, reined by Billy Houghton, who has won every harness racing honor except the Hambletonian, Carlisle has been re-shod with extra-heavy 11-ounce front shoes to keep him on stride and colts and two fillies, reverts to the once magical two minutes.

Bill Casper Is Favorite of Tourney

By JOHN FARROW
SOUTHPORT, England (AP)

Bill Casper is back on pork and lamb with only an occasional slab of buffalo meat, and those who would like to beat him for hard cash on a golf course can derive little comfort from that.

"When I was 30, I felt like 40, and now I'm 35 and feel like 25," the Coronado, Calif., professional, U.S. Open and American Western champion said today.

Casper led a strong American contingent into Royal Birkdale's 7,037-yard par-73 links for a four-day, 72-hole medal play assault on the third annual Carling World Golf Championship.

First prize of $35,000 is only part of the $200,000 bag of money to be doled out Saturday. Casper returned to Birkdale with enthusiasm.

"I played well during the Ryder Cup here last year except for the last round when I got the flu and shouldn't have been playing at all," he commented. It was then that he told how allergic he was to certain foods and had to rely on wild game, including buffalo and deer meat.

"My diet has now shifted and now I can eat pork and lamb, eggs, citrus fruit, peas and beans," he said. Nevertheless, some buffalo meat will be flown in for him via London, he said.

Casper is a 4 to 1 favorite but insists in such a big field of 165 professionals from America, Europe, Asia and Africa, "no man should be better than 20 to 1."

After Casper, the field may be chasing Doug Sanders, Ojai, Calif.; Phil Rodgers, La Jolla, Calif.; and Peter Thomson of Australia, who won his fifth British Open crown at Birkdale in 1955.

is that the filly Kerry Way, 2-year-old trotting champion of 1965 who in a light campaign this year has won three of eight starts, is the horse to beat. Driven by Frank Ervin, who captured the 1959 Hambletonian with Diller Hanover, Kerry Way recently turned in the fastest trotting mark for 3-year-olds of the season with 2:00 1-5 on the mile track at Springfield, Ill.

The fans seem to favor Carlisle, reined by Billy Houghton, who has won every harness racing honor except the Hambletonian. Carlisle has been re-shod with extra-heavy 11-ounce front shoes to keep him on stride and colts and two fillies, reverts to the once magical two minutes.

An electric computer of the United States Trotting Association, located in Columbus, Ohio, was fed vital statistics on each horse in the field Monday and spewed out the odds. Carlisle is 4-1, Kerry Way 7-2, Polaris 9-2, Governor Armbr 5-1, Our Rainbow 15-1.

There is no pari-mutuel wagering on the big race, but unofficial odds include Carlisle 3-1, the No. 10 post position for the Kerry Way 7-2, Polaris 9-2, Governor Armbr 5-1, Our Rainbow 15-1, Careless Vlado 15-1, Iron for me, he says. "I think the No. 60 Gazelle 20-1, Starlite Way race will go more than two 20-1. Shatter way 25-1, Rocket heats. I hope so, because I Rodney 25-1, Broker's Choice don't think I can win the first 25-1 and All American 40-1. heat from the No. 10 slot."

By SANDY PADWE Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK (NEA) — The accountants barely close the books on the preceding year's tournament before the West Side Tennis Club opens a new one for the forthcoming national championships.

Twelve months for 11 days. Every year since 1921 the championships have been played in Forest Hills, Long Island, and every year the list of entries is larger.

This year it may go as high as 270 for the men's singles, women's singles and seniors' singles (Sept. 1-11). That means some hectic moments for Mrs. Eve Head and Mrs. Polly Evans, who have the responsibility of housing everyone.

Actually, a player's standing in the tennis community can be determined by his housing accommodations. For example, the winners at Wimbledon, Manuel Santana and Billie Jean King, rate suites at a mid-town New York hotel. Another hotel gives cut rates (but not suites) to the American and Australian Davis Cup teams.

"And some of the better-known players," says Mrs. Jeannette Fritchey of the tournament committee, "get invitations to private homes." The homes are usually those of the club members or those of New York's 100.

"Of course," Mrs. Fritchey adds, "there aren't as many guest bedrooms in the city as there are out in Newport or Southampton." Of course.

But there is a housing fund to accommodate the lesser-known players, who don't have their expenses paid (only the top four seeds in each division do). The others stay at a comfortable New York hotel, three or four to a room. But when they lose they must move out by 12 p.m. the next day unless they want to stay on, paying their own expenses.

For those staying at the hotels, there are chartered buses to and from Forest Hills on a regular basis. There is a hospitality room and for the ladies — something very special this year.

"We have two cosmetics companies coming in to set up a special salon for the girls," Mrs. Fritchey said. "They can have a free make-up and hairdo every day. At least we'll have the prettiest girls."

There is never a lack of parties or social activity. Mrs. Gladys Heldman, publisher of World Tennis Magazine, throws her annual swimming party at her East End Avenue apartment, followed by dinner.

Out in Forest Hills, club members have a number of cocktail parties after the day's play has ended. And the Tennis Writers Association has its annual ball at the Plaza Hotel.

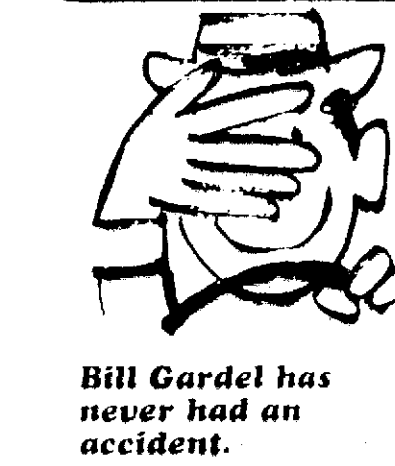

In between, the players manage to get in some tennis pretty good tennis, too.

German Official Defends Action

BONN, Germany (AP) — Defense Minister Karl-Heinz von Hassel today defended his actions in the current military crisis and promised a further shake-up in the West German air force.

Von Hassel acknowledged at a press conference that there had been breakdowns in communications between air force commanders and the Defense Ministry and that relations between the generals and his defense deputy were strained.

The defense minister said he felt himself in no way responsible for the crisis that has seen three top generals, including the commander of the air force, submit their resignations.

Florists Elect Cleveland Man

CLEVELAND (AP) — Albert R. Bunting of Cleveland, Ohio, has been elected president of the Florists' International Association.

Bunting, who has been in the florist business for 25 years, was elected to a two-year term. He will represent the association at the annual convention in New York City.

Bunting said he was honored to be elected president and would work to improve relations between florists and the public.

Hess Closer to Being the Last Man

BERLIN (AP) - Each day, Rudolf Hess knows he is 24 hours closer to the end of September and the day when he may become the sole inmate of the cavernous Spandau war crimes prison. If he is not freed or moved, he will be the last Nazi held captive in the 19th century military prison built for 600 men. At 72, Hess no longer is the darkly handsome deputy Fuehrer to Adolf Hitler who strutted with the Nazis to the pinnacle of power in Germany in the 1930s. He has become an old man with 25 years imprisonment behind him, dating from the day he made his startling 1941 flight to wartime Great Britain on a self-styled "mission of humanity." Convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment by the 1946 Nuerenberg war crimes tribunal, Hess has been in Spandau 20 years. He shares the prison with the other seven top Nazis originally sent to Spandau. They are former Hitler youth leader Baldur von Schirach, 59, and wartime production minister Albert Speer, 61. At midnight Sept. 30, von Schirach and Speer will walk out of Spandau free men, their 20-year sentences served. Hess has refused to RED CHINESE STUDENTS, at liberty white universities are closed for an ideological purge, have taken to the streets of Peking in a purge of their own to erase evidences of western influence. At left, a young member of the so-called Red Guard affixes a sign reading "Suits for People" over a tailor shop which had offered western-style clothing. At right, Mao Tse-tung, at a Peking rally celebrating the "cultural revolution," wears a Red Guard armband signifying support for the campaign.

EARTH FROM THE MOON appears as a globe half in sunlight, half in the black shadow of night in this picture transmitted by Lunar Orbiter, the first ever taken of the entire earth from space. At right is a portion of the moon's surface. Cloud cover on the earth obscures details, but Antarctica is located at the bottom, the coast of South America on the east, the U.S. southern coast at upper left and southern Europe at top near the dark side.

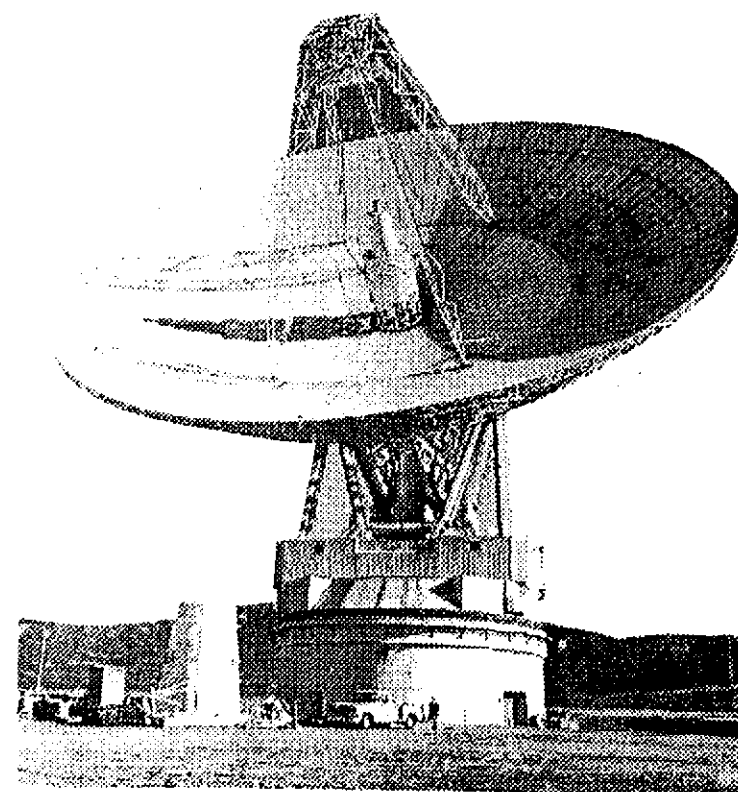

STRIKE CAUSE at a Gardiner, Ore., plywood mill is Pat Morris. Some 300 millworkers walked out to protest her suspension because her snug-fitting clothes allegedly distracted other workers.

DEEP SPACE NETWORK

The Lunar Orbiter spacecraft in this artist's conception swings low over the moon's surface on its vital mission photographing possible landing sites for American astronauts. A vital role in this and other U.S. missions in the advancing exploration of space is played by the Deep Space Network, a globe-girdling chain of radio stations that keeps track of a spacecraft's progress and picks up the signals—photographs and statistical data—it radios back from space. The network has responsibility for supporting all unmanned probes to the moon and beyond.

The Deep Space Network's stations are similar to this giant 85-foot "dish" antenna located at Goldstone in California's Mojave Desert. The antenna can be "locked in" on a spacecraft for the duration of its flight.

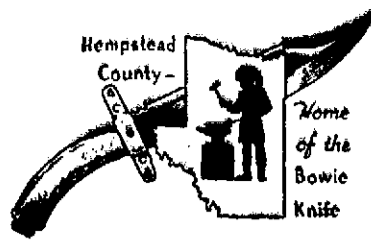

SOMETHING NEW IN HELICOPTERS, this unconventional model uses rigid rotors instead of the hinged, movable blades of other copters. The change, according to the developers, enables it to dispense with the usual exposed motor and long tailboom and rotor, giving it the appearance of an airborne sports car. Speed is said to be above 150 m. p. h., twice as fast as most light helicopters. With a price tag under $20,000, it is designed for business and private users seeking an aircraft easy to fly, reliable, inexpensive to buy and operate.

Control center of the Deep Space Network is the Space Flight Operations Facility at the California Institute of Technology's Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena. Permanent tracking stations are located at Goldstone, Calif.; Woomera and Canberra, Australia; Madrid, Spain; and Johannesburg, South Africa. There is also a monitoring station at Cape Kennedy. The stations span a global area of some 35,000 miles and a spacecraft is never out of radar view of at least one. The stations alternate in sending commands and receiving telemetered photos and other information.

Check Wind, Angle And Then Spit

Amazing, that's what it is. Absolutely amazing the reasons people can find for holding a festival, celebration or contest. There's everything from log-splitting and pie-eating to swamp-bugging and frog-jumping in the contest line. There are all manner of festivals from folk-singing to apple butter making and as for celebrations, well you name it and they have one for it some place at sometime or other.

Now comes word of a new one. It is the World Championship Watermelon Seed Spitting Contest that has been scheduled for Pauls Valley, Okla. An official charter was granted the contest by the Oklahoma secretary of state on the ground that the contest would foster scientific knowledge concerning "trajectory, wind resistance and velocity that enter into the calculations of aviation and the space program."

Times certainly have changed. Used to be kids who sat around spitting watermelon seeds got a flap on the mouth. Now they're giving prizes for it and all in name of science. — Charleston (W. Va.) Daily Mail

Shaddup, Murphy

This modern age, for all its conveniences and gilded leisure, has spawned a whole new range of annoyances, and one thing that strikes us as particularly irksome is the increasing frequency with which we find ourselves being lectured by machines.

Vending machines do it, observing mechanically that one is permitted to use "Correct change only," or curtly thwarting this craving or that one with the irreversible command, "Make another selection." Parking meters do it with that little red violation flag, which must be the only sign in the world that scowls. Even one's own telephone is likely to admonish him in the privacy of his home that it is "... sorry, but the number you have dialed is out of service at this time."

But according to latest intelligence a Washington office building has come up with the ultimate in overbearing machinery—Murphy, a disembodied voice that helps run the building's elevators. "Please press the button for your floor and step back," Murphy intones as passengers enter, and then he calls off the floors as the elevator rises. But hold the door open for a tardy passenger and Murphy carps. "Please let the doors close, you are delaying service," Murphy doesn't stop carping until the door is released.

Vending machines, parking meters and recorded telephone voices we have been able to withstand thus far. But Murphy, we suspect, would prove intolerable. Even now we are nursing a little fantasy in which we silence Murphy with a pair of wire clippers and hold the elevator door open interminably, just for the heck of it. A small rebellion, but satisfying. — Charlotte (N. C.) News

The Bobcat
Scores A
Plus Rating

An A+ score has been earned by the 1966 Bobcat, Hope High School yearbook, in the annual critical service sponsored by the National Scholastic Yearbook Association, Memphis.

"The 1966 Bobcat is a spirited and interesting yearbook, one of the finest that I have ever seen. I would especially like to commend you on your layouts. In an area where most staffs flounder around, you have done an outstanding job," commented the judge in his summary statement.

The 1965 Bobcat with Karen Cobb and Sharon Frith as co-editors was the first Hope High School yearbook to be rated A+.

Interest Rate
Triggers Big Disagreement

WASHINGTON (AP) — The touchy issue of spiraling interest rates has triggered a top-level disagreement in the Democratic party, with President Johnson challenging former President Harry S. Truman's warning that the high rates could bring on a depression.

Johnson said he shares Truman's concern about the mounting rates.

"However," he added, "I cannot agree with President Truman that our economy is in danger of recession or depression."

The President contended the tight money supply mainly reflects "the extreme buoyance of our economy and the resulting very sharp rise in the demand for credit."

In a statement issued from his Texas ranch, the President said Monday: "These are symptoms of strength, not weakness."

But, the President said, "we need to find better ways to restrain inflationary pressures than by resort merely to the high interest rates we have been witnessing."

This comment prompted some members of Congress to say privately that the President may be beginning to think of new legislative proposals to deal with the situation.

came less than 24 hours after Truman, in a rare public statement issued from his Independence, Mo., home, hit at the high rates.

"If we persist in high interest rates," Truman said, "the result could be a serious depression."

He said higher rates are an added burden on all governments — federal, state and local — and that "added interest costs end up as a further tax on the consumer."

Black Unity General
Theme of the Negro
Left's Militant Men

NEW YORK (AP) — The Negro left's most militant leaders hammered at the themes of black unity and white oppression Monday night from a speaker's platform guarded by uniformed members of Harlem's new Black Panther party.

About 250 Negroes, attending what was billed as a fund-raising benefit for the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee, enthusiastically applauded William Epton, head of Harlem's Peking-oriented Progressive Labor party and Max Stanford, a member of the Black Panthers, an offshoot of Alabama's all-Negro political party.

But they saved a standing ovation for Stokely Carmichael, chairman of SNCC.

Carmichael, who has been warmly received by young Negroes on a tour of the Northeast this week, pounded at his customary themes of black unity, the need for "black people" to take over and run their own communities, and the so-called treachery of the United States in dealing with Negroes and other nonwhites abroad.

Carmichael spoke from a platform in the Mount Morris Presbyterian Church in Harlem guarded by six young members of the Black Panther party, each wearing black shirts, black pants and black panther emblems.

The party, founded in Lowndes County, Ala., has counseled Negroes to vote by race rather than to seek concessions from predominantly white political organizations.

Epton urged a united front against "U.S. imperialism" in front of a half-dozen white newsmen and television camera crews before sponsors of the rally asked "the white press and all our enemies" to leave the church. Negro reporters were allowed to remain.

Blevins to Begin Classes
on Sept. 5

Blevins Public Schools will begin Monday, September 5, at 8:30 a.m. All buses will run at the regular time. No lunches will be served on Monday as the students will be dismissed by noon. The lunchroom will be open on Tuesday, September 6.

All students entering school for the first time, must have a birth certificate and proof of small pox vaccination.

Drinking Blamed

CHICAGO (AP) — The National Safety Council estimates 200 lives would be saved during the Labor Day weekend if motorists would use alcohol more intelligently.

The council predicted Sunday that 530 to 630 Americans would die on the nation's roads during the 78-hour tabulating period which begins 6 p.m. local time Friday, Sept. 2, and ends midnight, Monday, Sept. 5.

The record toll for a Labor Day holiday, compiled by The Associated Press last year, is 563.

Thousands of Chinese
Demonstrate in Front of Russian Embassy

TOKYO (AP) — Chinese authorities apparently called off more mass demonstrations in front of the Soviet Embassy in Peking today to avoid a diplomatic rupture with Moscow. But indications were that the militant young Red Guards would redouble their activity elsewhere.

The official Peking People's Daily praised the teen-age "defenders of Mao Tze-tung's thoughts" for ferreting out "bloodsuckers" and "sworn enemies of the people."

The newspaper said the guard's purge of foreign influences "heralds political and economic revolution."

Japanese correspondents in the Chinese capital said the anti-Soviet demonstration by 200,000 of the red-armed youths, which began Monday and was scheduled to continue through today, seemed ended.

Soldiers two deep held the throng back and the rally was orderly. The crowds never got nearer than 150 yards to the embassy as they shouted "Down the Russian revisionists."

Even after the mob dispersed, cordons of soldiers and police kept guard.

The People's Daily, organ of the Chinese Communist party, called for the Chinese people to take up the Red Guards' purge.

The purpose of the purge, the party paper said, is to "destroy utterly the old ideas, old culture, old customs and old habits" and "to foster vigorously the new ideas, new culture, new customs and new habits of the proletariat and socialism."

Negro Bands
Roam City
in Michigan

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Bands of Negro youths roamed Benton Harbor, Mich., Monday night, stoning storefronts and automobiles as the northern Midwest stayed in the center of the racial scene.

Police Lt. Meredith Rynearson said some persons were arrested during the second straight night of unrest in the southwest Michigan city of 20,000, including some white persons for shotguns and bats in the car.

He said about 30 extra officers were called in from neighboring communities and from the state police as three or four gangs each with 35 to 100 Negro youngsters roved through a predominantly Negro area.

Eight youths had been arrested Sunday during a melee which ensued when officers tried to disperse a crowd.

At Waukegan, Ill., police enforced a 7:30 p.m. curfew and prevented a recurrence of three days of rioting. They arrested more than 50 curfew violators in a Negro neighborhood and charged them all with mob action.

Police said one-third of the arrestees were from outside of Waukegan. They said they confiscated automatic pistols, revolvers, ax handles, rubber hoses, knives, hammers and lengths of pipe.

Nineteen of the arrestees were white, police said. The rest were Negroes.

"We're stamping it out as soon as it starts," said Police Lt. Patrick Quilty.

Boycott of Marvell School

MARVEL, Ark. (AP) — The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee said that at least 1,500 Negro children boycotted Marvell schools on the opening day of classes Monday.

C. G. Cowser, superintendent of the schools here, said he would let SNCC do the talking and he declined further comment.

The Marvell district has about 1,800 Negro students, about three times the number of white pupils.

SNCC said the boycott was called because the district failed to sign the 1966 guidelines to comply with the Civil Rights Act.

Rusk Defends
$15 Billion for Military

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk defends today the scope and cost of U.S. military commitments amid Capitol Hill warnings the Viet Nam war may last another five years and require up to $15 billion more this year.

Rusk goes before the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, whose members generally favor a strong U.S. policy in Viet Nam but are concerned that the United States is becoming overextended in its foreign policy aims.

Rusk told the group in its first session last week that the United States was not overextended. But he is expected to be closely questioned about this — particularly dealing with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization — at the closed part of today's hearing.

Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, the ranking Republican on the Senate Armed Services Committee, the parent body of the preparedness group, cautioned Monday that the war may go on for another five years.

"Let us have no illusion about it," he told Naval Air Reservists in a speech at South Weymouth, Mass. "Before we are through in Viet Nam we will have to increase our troops and our targets there, just as our defense budget will increase."

Rep. George H. Mahon, D-Tex., chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, had some grim predictions on the cost.

He told the House that at the present rate of spending the Pentagon may need $5 billion to $15 billion more this fiscal year to fight the war.

If costs zoom toward the upper limit, he added, "it's a 50-50 chance" that a tax increase may be needed to pay for them.

The White House and French sources had no immediate public comment meanwhile on Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield's proposal that President Johnson and French President Charles de Gaulle get together to discuss ways to try to end the war.

Mansfield suggested Monday in a Senate speech that his proposed summit meeting be held on the French island of Guadeloupe in the Caribbean, after the French president confers with Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodian chief of state.

De Gaulle is scheduled to begin talks with Sihanouk in Cambodia today and is to stop off at Guadeloupe toward the end of his world trip.

Reds Continue
Harassment of Shipping

By ROBERT TUCKMAN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Viet Cong kept up harassment of allied shipping today with an unsuccessful attack on a U.S. Navy river patrol boat in the canal-laced Mekong Delta.

As the Communists staged their fifth attack on the waterways within eight days, the U.S. Navy sent aloft helicopter gunships to support its river boat fleet. It is the first time the Navy has flown its own armed helicopters.

Navy pilots and crews took over operation of the UH-1B Huey helicopters from Army teams after on-the-job training aboard the USS Tortuga, a dock landing ship stationed off the coast as base for the choppers.

The U.S. command said a mine exploded near a Navy patrol boat in the Co Chien River, 55 miles southwest of Saigon, but the blast caused no damage or casualties.

Then Viet Cong on the shore opened up with about 100 rounds of automatic fire. But the boat was not hit and its crew returned the fire. Results of the American fire were not known, an American spokesman said.

American warplanes pounded North Viet Nam in more heavy raids Monday, flying 133 multiple missions against oil depots, truck convoys and other targets in the southern Panhandle and coastal areas.

One U.S. F105 Thunderchief was shot down Monday 15 miles northwest of Dong Hoi. The pilot bailed out but was not rescued and was listed as missing. It was the 347th American plane reported lost in the air war against the North.

Ground action in South Viet Nam came to a near standstill with only patrol skirmishes reported.

Guam-based B52 bombers made two raids today. One formation hit an enemy troop concentration and training camp 40 miles southwest of Saigon at dawn. Another formation struck at a North Vietnamese infiltration route a few miles south of the demilitarized zone and 20 miles west of Dong Ha, in Quang Tri Province, the U.S. command said.

The series of attacks on allied shipping began with the mining last Tuesday of the U.S. merchant ship Baton Rouge Victory. She was hit 20 miles southeast of Saigon in the main shipping channel to the capital and seven of her crew of 45 Americans were killed.

Bitter Voices
From Harlem
Are Heard

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two bitter voices from Harlem — challenging a society they said seeks only to "keep the niggers cool" — stirred today an investigation into government job policies in the Negro ghetto.

The question: Does a criminal record, which they said marks almost every Negro ghetto youth before he is 21, bar a man forever from government employment?

Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., said it should not, and investigators for his Senate subcommittee, looking into city problems, set to work to find out what rules and policies the government follows.

The investigators may have a report ready Wednesday.

The bitter voices were those of author Claude Brown — who broke away from a youth of drug peddling to attend college, now law school; and Arthur Dummeyer, who has spent half his life in prison and acknowledged he might go back again.

Brown told Ribicoff's subcommittee Monday, "So far, all the white community has done is to try to placate. Just keep the niggers cool — let's pass a civil rights bill."

Society's laws, said Brown, are written to protect white society, not the ghetto Negro. "He doesn't recognize this law."
